"OLD DEAL STILL IN VOGUE"—Father Coughlin

Father Charles E. Coughlin, radio priest, and pastor of the Church of the Little Flower, Royal Oak, Michigan, contemplating another series of broadcasts, has disclosed what he terms "a brief but honest opinion on the basic questions to be discussed."

Father Coughlin says:

"First: While I believe in regulating both industry and agriculture, nevertheless, I am opposed to their regimentation as the sole means for restoring prosperity. Especially do I stand opposed to the policies of the De-Who pays your wages or salary? DEPOSITS INSURED The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation WASHINGTON, D. C. MAXIMUM INSURANCE $5000 FOR EACH DEPOSITOR

The State Bank of Antioch has received from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation at Washington the official signs which will hang at all receiving windows as visible evidence that the depositors of this institution are insured.

The State Bank of Antioch is one of more than 14,000 licensed banks in the country which are receiving these signs. Insured banks are able to offer protection to their depositors up to $1,000. Statistical studies have shown that this maximum fullyprotects more than 97 per cent of all the depositors in insured

A statement by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation follows:

"The purpose of the signs is to let depositors know which banks are insured. Heretofore, although 90 per cent of the licensed banks are insured, depositors have had no easy means of identifying them.

"If, by any unforseen circumstances, an insured bank should suspend, the Insurance Corporation would begin paying off the depositors just as soon as a receiver was appointed for the closed institution. The depositors would receive their money in a few days instead of waiting months or years as was the case in the former method of liquidation. This is not only a benefit to the depositors, but it saves the community from a terrific economic and social blow. When the depositors receive their insured accounts they assign their claims to the Insurance Corporation. Thereafter liquidation proceeds on a business-like basis with the maximum chance of the Corporation and other creditors being paid in full."

For some time negotiations have been going on for the transfor of the abandoned Hickory church to the Lake Villa parish of which it is a part, and plans were made last wook over the same, and on Monday the sents of the Hickory church were moved to Lake Villa and stored until the time which we hope will be soon when the local church may be altered and the seats installed. Plans for razing the Hickory church are not yet complete.

Joe Pester, who was one of the first men to go into business in the village many years ago, and who had a black smith shop on the corner adjacent to his home, now occupied by Rontner and linley as service station, passed away at his home here last Thursday after an illness of two years. He was born'69 years ago near Somersetshire In England and came to this country when a young man. For a while ho worked with his brother in Libertyville as blackksmith, then came to Lake Villa, where for many years he was the village hiacksmith. He marrled Mertie Farrow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Farrow, both deceased, and they have 3 sons and 2 daughters. The funeral was held from his into home on Saturday afternoon, with Rev. L. V. Sitler of Antioch preaching the funeral sermon and Frank Sherwood sang, accompanled by Mrs. II. Nelson. Burial was In the Lake Villa cemetery.

Overcoming Discouragement

ACK of coursgel. How many worthy enterprises bave failed of achievement because men have listened to this subtle argument! What a destructive influence, it seeks to exert over the affairs of mankind; yet it is really nonexistent -a negative condition. Cae there possibly be insufficient courage for him who refuses to give up tils right to this ever avaitable, unlimited aptritual gift of courage? During times of financial stress it is often necessary to draw deeply upon it, if one would prove lovalid the mortal claims of tack that appear on every observing a young vine that had been carelessly planted in a rockery against a brick wall. It had very little earth around its roots, and because of overhanging caves, was de-prived of ratufall. Yet, in spite of this, it had established liself. At first, progress aboveground was very. much retarded, but at length a single stalk had climbed about two feet up the wall, when it was pulled down-and broken off by a little child. One who had been observing the vine's persistence felt quite regretful to see its growth apparently thwarted, but a further lesson was learned when, within a short time, there graw from the broken and two branches where only one had been before.

For this little vine the business of turning out stems and leaves had to bs taken care of. Instead of withering in the dry and stony ground, it thrust long roots down below the stones in search of moisture. From these deep roots the plant was well sustained, even through hot, dry summers. So the apparently unfa-vorable environment proved unable to prevent sturdy growth.

Those who are endeavoring to establish a business enterprise during a financial depression might well take a lesson from the vina. In such seemingly arid times, when business does not flow readlly to the young con-cern, much courageous persistence is needed to continue spreading its roots beyond the disappointingly dry territory; thus the courage born of faith in God's austaining laws will insvi-Strong, consistent, upward growth proves that this radical stand for progress yields good results. The withstanding of adversities may bring the experience which sids one in grounding his business so firmly on the knowledge of the truth that drought or storms are powerless to harm it. Pride in merely making "a good showing" must give place to the greater wisdom of first establishing a sound basis, for the overhead should not be more than the flow of business can sustain at all times. Even if a first achievement seems to come to grief, progressive expansion cannot long be checked if the foundation is welt laid.

In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy has written (p. 190): "The devotion of thought to an honest achievement makes the achievement possible. Exceptions only confirm this rule, proving that failure is occasioned by a loo foeble faith." Any business, to be truly successful, must be built on an ideat of honest and loving service to manking, and not carried on for permankind, and not carried on for personal exaltation or selfish ambition. Thus established, it is indeed the taw should be the tap-root that stim-ulates growth. Christian Science teaches that stick a service has within itself; all the essentials for prosperous expansion.

Under divine law there is no un-fair competition by which one husiness succeeds at the expense of another. The service that each one can offer is a God-given nblilty, and is as individual to each as is the per-fume of the rose or color to the sunflower. Although growing side by side, one plant cannot deprive its neighbor of the characteristics that belong to it. Is it cause for discouragement that grains of wheat can never become majestic oak trees? They can, however, develop into acros of grain, and who can say that these are of less impurtance than a forest of oak?

God's divine law, which protected and prospered an honest enterprise in ancient times, is just as effectual today, and the commandment given to Joshua is still as imperative: Only be thou strong and very courageous, that thou mayest observe to do according to all the law, which Moses my servant commanded theo; turn not from it to the right hand or to the left, that then mayest prosper. whilbersoever thou goest." - The Christian Science Monitor,

HOLD ON TO YOUTH

Your Eyes Reflect Your Health !

By Marle II. Callulan, Editor Modern Beauty Shop Magazine,

If your vitality is low, if you have been keeping, late hours, or working under too great a nervous tension, your eyes will probably be the first part of you to be noticeably affected. You are all familiar with the dark brings on. And your physical condition is also largely responsible for 'a "lack histro" quality in the eyes themselves. Or eyestrain may have this

If you had to hold your arm la one position all day long you would naturnly expect to feet discomfort in the muscles of that arm; yet a large proportion of people employed in inlong without doing anything to counteruct the effect of the constant strain. True, the eyes do not at first give the sharp painful warning of overstrain that your arm thus abused would, but the strain is there just the same. To offset the effect of this constant downward looking, 'try 'dellherately exercising your eye muscles erery, day. In addition to this, look np whenever you can-when walking, travelling the street car to nod from work, and so on.

After doing close work for noy length of time, shut your eyes for n minute; then focus them on a distant object. Wish the eyes twice a day in an eye cup full of berle neld solution. At night, massage a little food 'cream inround them.

Then there are definite eye disenses that detract from eye beauty. Sties are usually brought on by poor physleal condition. Gentle massage with clean fingers and hot compresses of horie neld solution can be used as inmediate trentment for this condition. But the most important thing in treating this eye trouble, as in many eye troubles, is to build up the general health, making sere that your diet is regetables and that you have plenty careful attention.

of sleep, and exercise in the fresh ale Xerophthaimia is an eye disease caused by lack of Vitamin A. Lack of lime in the diet will also enuse eye disturbances. The best source of both these elements is fresh milk. We can't change the actual color of our eyes but we can do wonders loward heautifying them, Groomlog of hishes and eyebrows is important. And recently the eye make-ups which are on the market have been greatly improved until now when artistically applied, eye sludowing may be suitably used even in the daylime.

Of course, just na the color of the sky will be reflected lu the color of in lake or strenm, so also can the colors of a woman's dress, hat or lowelry affect the secolng color, of her eyes. Those with pale blue eyes should avoid strong, bright blue and wenr dark, soft, misty blue. Orange will give strength to a faint blue Gray-eyed people should shun browns, yellows, or wnrm reds, and wenr instend soft blues, cool greens, and purplish reds.

Beautiful, expressive eyes can transform your entire appearance, so surebuilt around fresh milk, fruits, and ly it is worthwhile to give them most Dragoon's Sword Found What is declared to be a dragoon's sword of the Seventeenth century peglod, and probably a relie of the Covenanting days, was found at Stone house, Scothad, by two school boys. The sword was tirmly incosed in what appeared to be a leather scabbard, but ags so rotted it that it fell to pieces when the weapon was withdrawn. The binde is hooked, heavily rusted and measures 30 Inches from hilt to tip.

Appeals to Poor Man "Extravagance," sold Hi Ho, the ange of Chinatown, "Is often popular In a prince, because it implies august approval of what the poor man would permit himself if he had the apportunlly."-Washington Star.

Named for Botenist The magnolla flower is so named in honor of Pierro Magnole, a French botanist of the early Seventeenth century. The meaning of the word magcolla is high souled.

CHOOSING FOODS WISELY

By ADELAIDE SPOHN, Ph. D. Nutritionist of the Elizabeth McCormick Memorial Fund and Director of Nutrition Service, Illinois Emergency Relief Commission.

Food Sense Saves Food Dollars We have reason to believe that propor nutrition is the most important aingle factor in the maintenance of good health. It behooves na therefore in this present altuation when economy has become the watchword of the times, to apply the pruning shears with discrimination. To provide udequate nutrition, the diet of a family must furnish enough carbohydrates, fets and proteins to yield the standard energy needs of the various members of the family group. In interest of economy, we must muke these the carriers of the other dletary essentials; first. sufficient proteins of good quality for growth and maintenance of tody Usaueat second, enough of the essential mineral elements; and third, enough of each of the necessary vitanins.

During the World war, when food saving and economy became necessary, Miss Lucy Gillett, of the New York Association for Improving the Coodition of the Poor, gave the following advice: Divide your money into fiftha and spend one fifth, more or less, for fruits and vegetables; one-fifth or, more for mlk and cheese; one-fifth or less for meat, fish and eggs; one-fifth or more for brend and cereals; one fifth or less for fate and sugara and other groceries. This is atill good ad- be. The ideal allowance is a quart vice. Many families on restricted in of milk for every child and for the comes would live more economically. pregnant and nursing mother. Clothes Respond To Good Posture

The latest clothes models are de signed to look their best on these who observe the posture rules: cheat up, tummy in. Therefore it behooves the fair sex to keep a sharp eye on their posture habits.

The small girl who does not carry herself correctly and does not strive for a good erect carriage will find that she can add an inchito two inchea to her height with a changed posttion of the body. And the girl with the thick waistline and diaphragm will be surprised and delighted when she compares her measurements 'in the ordinary posture and in the now

We may holl down posture rules to foot and your chest. See that the two controlling features: Watch your feet point straight ahead, or noarly so, that lightness of step may he effected with a buoyant spring on the soles. Hold up your chest. By doing ao you automatically reform faulty. posture habits. There, will be no slump of the neek. Your abdomen will be pulled in. Your back will be fall in an easy line. And that's not all posture does for you. It makes your clothes look a thousand times better. No model, no matter how expensive, will look the part unless the body for which it was made carries corresponding air.

Bright Scotch Plaids Are Sent To School

New things should be received with shouts of approbation by the hard-toplease young set that they wore dealgned to please. The newest eyefilling plaids gayly, guaranteed ta splash color in every kindergarten or schoolroom in the country! Flippant, breezy Scotch plaids for little brother and small sister that are quite the beat lacking samples of Scotch over imported. They are designed by thrifty souls so that as your cherubs start to grow the cunning kilted akirt or tallored tronsers can be anchered on the lower row of huttons and a good two inches gained.

They are practical, sturdy clothes, besides having that dashing continental air. Small sweaters and matching kilts and infinitesimal trousers; costumes topped with cocky little black velvet glongarry bonnels with a spot of scarlat feather at the side and two long black sreamers at the back.

Brother and sister costumes are amarter than over before whother you want them for summer or winter and the new plaids follow the same

High colored linens in sea green, trimmed with exquisitely fine handwork, stunning white linen, with shoer blouse tops for small rogues and ovon amaller sized sister orango linen combined with white or colors-anything and everything you could possibly want or use can be yours for the wise shopping.

OOUR CHILD AND THE SCHOOL

Football

The football season is worry time for most parents. Perhaps most of our fears are groundless, particularly in the case of the senior high school boy. But for the younger boy in the grades and junior high school, football becomes a hazard. Most leaders lr athletics and physical aducation believe that the boy should not play the real game until he is in the senior school. And then only when he la In the best condition as shown by a physician's examination, Every candidate for any school athletic team should be thoroughly examined before being allowed to join the squad.

As a part of the examination some schools are demanding a tuberculln test and an X-ray of the chest. This practice will become general in time for all students. To the parent of a player, the foot-ball season is the ideal time to put the health rules into practice. At this time, the boy will do anything under the guise of training.

The coach and the trainer have a real educational opportunity. Let football be the vehicle for valuable lessons in nutrition, the correct diet, the value of milk, aleep, bathing, and the like. The boy will feel the good effects, so utilize his interest in an effort to have him carry over the health practices when the season is ended.

Dr. Ireland will discuss food essentials for the school child in his next series.

Linen, Treated Like Paper, Used on Walls of Alcove

If you have a little bleeve in any, room la your house perhaps you'd like to try decorating it in the same fashion as one in a most attractive new bedroom of a budget house on display in a Chicago store. The materlal used for the window draperles was a levely printed linen—a floral design on a pure white ground. This same fabric was then treated as If it wore wall paper and was applied to the walls of the alcovo. The effect was utterly charming. And the room achieved a feeling of unity because of this clever little trick.

It is one than can be carried out la almost any room in the house.
